Do you know what ROI is? ROA (return on investment) is a measure of return on investment in a business that you can control. Performance indicators may include: - increase in sales - increase in profit - increase in sales or profit - decrease in costs - increase in brand awareness or customer loyalty If you don't know the value of RO, what is the formula for AYOa? RA is ROBO (retail) - the profit you receive from sales. You can see it in the formula Product (Sale) - Unit cost (value) - Number and number of units (value) - Total cost (revenue) Capital costs, royalties, depreciation, etc. Marketing digital transformation is the use of a CRM system to manage marketing based on user buying behavior data. Collect user behavior data on your website and use it in Ayoa. What is the best way to develop a product promotion strategy? The product promotion strategy is built on the basis of key facts - about the product, its uniqueness, distinctive features, positioning, pair factors, etc. It should also be taken into account that the user always chooses a product from those that offer it. Based on this, a promotion strategy is built, which may vary depending on the market segment in which the company operates.
