Review titles in the following categories: 7.0 End of review: Jun 26, 2014 Overall Score 4.5 SUMMARY There are thousands of great Mac apps out there. If you're looking for something with a different take on functionality, then Mac OSX Apps is the place to look. While the overall quality of the apps is quite good, Mac OSX Apps is not where you're going to find the latest and greatest on the Mac platform. Integrated with LaunchBar and Spotlight to create a quicker workflow for launching applications and searching in the app store. With Mac OSX Apps you can see the categories of apps you're most likely to use and change the app store search results to include only those categories. There are some limitations to this app: There are only five apps on the site - if you want more, or want to try something completely different, then you're better off checking out our best Mac Apps list for all the top free and paid apps. MAC OSX Apps is a paid app. There are no trial versions. Full version costs $4.99 USD or $2.99 for developers and students. NOTE: Some older versions of OSX were able to use the app store integration at the OS level instead of requiring this. If you find this is the case for you, it's best to update 81e310abbf

S.E.2d 40. [7] The State argues that the evidence is sufficient to sustain Brown's conviction for Level 6 felony possession of methamphetamine. Specifically, the State argues that there is sufficient evidence that Brown was in constructive possession of methamphetamine. In support of this argument, the State notes that (1) Brown was driving in the car in which the methamphetamine was found and (2) the methamphetamine was in a closed container. [8] Brown did not argue at trial that there was insufficient evidence to support the possession of methamphetamine conviction; accordingly, we review only for fundamental error. See Pigeon v. State, 20 N.E.3d 1110, 1115 (Ind. Ct. App. 2014). "The error is fundamental if it is so prejudicial as to make a fair trial impossible or constitute clear error." Id. (quoting Perry v. State, 956 N.E.2d 1244, 1249 (Ind. Ct. App. 2011), trans. denied). "Fundamental error does not include all errors in the trial process, and
