What's new in Fifa 22:

- Control intelligence has been optimised to increase accuracy and responsiveness in gameplay, in both offline and online modes.
- New transfer visualisations, in-game tooltips and the improved Player Impact Engine deliver detailed summary information in order to help decision makers quickly identify strengths and weaknesses in a player.
- A host of improvement updates to gameplay.
- ~~The game's new control intelligence system gives players more options when making key decisions.~~

FIFA 22 introduces a new Control Intelligence system that gives players more options when making key decisions.

Digital Passes - during Quick Play, player positioning and ball control is upgraded. Players will naturally respond and become better in anticipated situations.

Players will feel much more intelligent when receiving the ball, showing greater focus and awareness. Watch player behaviours in order to draw new passing and shooting cues.

New shooting and passing visualisation system, in order to make players appear more technically adept. Passes will be exchanged between intelligent players in a more fluid manner.

New pass placement algorithm has been introduced which makes shots more effective and more satisfying.

Moreover, PES 2016 has the most realistic follow-through motion when passing.

Are you in for the next FIFA game! Look out for the FIFA 22 EA SPORTS demo downloading on Xbox Live's Games on Demand tomorrow.
